The Championship Fight Between Jas. Jeffries and Gus Ruhlin.

The Committee Having It in Charge Will Ask the Mayor to Withdraw the Permit.

Cincinnati, Jan. 10.—The fight for the championship of the world between James J. Jeffries, champion heavy weight pugilist, and Gus Ruhlin, the Akron giant, scheduled to take place at the Saengerfest hall on February 15, will not take place.

This was settled Wednesday at a conference of the sub-committee of the Saengerfest directors. It was agreed by the sub-committee not to ask Mayor Fleiselmann to issue a permit for the fight. As the mayor promised to issue the permit at the request of the committee, he can do but one thing-grant the latest request.

After much deliberation the committee decided that the mayor had exceeded his authority in agreeing to issue the permit.

First-That everything done in the matter up to the present time would demonstrate that the affair would be a prize fight and not a sparring exhibition, as contemplated by the law, and, therefore, a felouy under the laws of Dhio, which would implicate everybody connected with it.

Second-That even if the affair was a sparring exhibition, as contemplated by the laws of the state, the Saengerfest atheltic club, as organized, would not come legally within the provision and intention of the stat-

Third-That the legal formalities in organizing a corporation of this kind, one for profit, as it would undoubtedly be, have not been done in compliance with the laws of the state.

LEGATION QUARTERS.

The State Department Has Under Consideration the Rebuilding of Those Damaged at Peking.

Washington, Jan. 10 .- The state department has had under consideration for some time the question of rebuilding the United States legation quarters at Peking, which were badly damaged and otherwise made unserviceable during the siege, but no exact plan of action has been determined upon, pending advices from Mr. Conger as to just what shall be done. Where the legation shall be located and the general dimensions and character of the establishment will depend to a large extent upon the outcome of the present peace negotiations, as they include questions affecting the size and permanency of the legation quarters and guards.

THE PRUSSIAN MONARCHY.

The Bicentemary Will:Be Celebrated on January 18 With Special Solemn Services.

Berlin, Jan. 10 .- The bicentinary of the Prussian monarchy, which will be celebrated January 18, will be marked by a special solemn service, ordered by Emperor William in the garrison church. There will be also a special service in the castle chapel after which a battery in the Lustgarten will fire 101 guns.

YELLOW FEVEP. GERMS.

It ilus Been Proved Conclusively That the Mosquito Is Responsible For the Spread of the Disease.

Havana, Jan. 10.-The American commission, under the superintendency of Dr. Reed, which has been as to the propagation of yellow fever germs by the mosquito has obtained extremely satisfactory results.

Dr. Reed says the experiments show beyond a doubt that there is no contagion from an infected person or from infected clothing, but that the mosquitoes alone are responsible for the spread of the disease. In the course of the commission's investigations six non-immune persons were infected direct by the bite of the mosquitoes which had previously bitten yellow fever patients, and five of these developed yellow fever.

The last experiment made proved conclusively, Dr. Reed contends, the thory of propagation by mosqui-

> Berlin, Jan. 10 .- The war office has eccived the following dispatch from Count von Waldersee:

"Peking, Jan. 8 .- The fortress of Ho Pu, which was stormed January was the headquarters of newly organized bands of 'Boxers.' Over 1,000 had terrorized the district, and they and Chau Ping."

Wiring from Peking under date of January 6, Count von Waldersee says: "Col. Pavel's column is marching to Tai Ngon Fu, on the Pei Ho, to cooperate with Col. Madai's column from Yen King, 72 kilometers northwest of Peking. "Col. Pavel, after extremely severe marches over bypaths and through high mountains, stormed the fortifications January 3. These were defended by ten guns and from 600 to 1,000 men. Having protected the mines, the column is returning in extended order through Yen King.' London, Jan. 10 .- "Should no fresh developments render his presence in China necessary, "says the Shanghai orrespondent of the Daily News, Count von Waldersee will return to Europe about the end of March."

Berlin, Jan. 10.—Germany is not yet willing to define her position with reference to Secretary Hay's proposal to transfer the Peking negotiations to Washington, according to a statement made by a high foreign office official, because an exchange of views between the cabinet on the subject is now proceeding. The German foreign office, however, believes Mr. Conger's view of the attitude of the empress dowager is correct and that the position of the Chinese court at Sian Fu is growing more and more untenable, rendering it probable that the By a Collision of a Freight Train powers will soon succeed in persuadstorms of the year struck Chicago ing the imperial personages to return

NSOMNIA is a forerunner of nervous prostration; what tration; organism is strong enough to stand up under the strain of sleepless nights? It is plain that nothing in the world can possibly take the place of restful sleep, yet many try to eke out an existence without this sustaining power. Their nerves are in such a state of tension that sleep is an impossibility, or at best is a series of hideous dreams. It is not strange that physical and mental weakness, amounting soon to complete prostration, follows inability to sleep. There is no let-up to the strain. Vital forces are drawn upon, confirmed invalidism results.

The recuperative power of natural sleep is wonderful. Complete physical and mental exhaustion gives place, after a few hours of quiet slumber, to a full renewal of energy. The fatigue of body and mind disappears entirely while all the muscles are strong and the nerves absolutely calm. Dr. Greene's Sleep is the indication given plans to restore health. It shows that there are inherent in the wonderful human FOR THE BLOOD AND organism powers of recuperation which must have opportunity to assert themselves. Based on this clear demonstration, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy was constructed by Dr. Greene to help Nature combat the ills that attack men and women. ORPHAN ASYLUM FIRE.

Known That 27 Children Perished and Many Fatally Injured.

Iwo of the Women Attendants Are Among the Dead-The Property Loss Will Not Exceed the Sum of $20,000.

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 8.-Fire broke out in the hospital section of the Rochester orphan asylum at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning in Hubble Park, and the flames spread rapidly to other tablishment of the largest pipe and sections of the institution. It is known that 19 of the children perished and it is feared that many more victims may be reported later.

The fire was first discovered by two men passing the asylum. They instantly sent in an alarm and then turned their attention toward arousing the nurses and the children.

A terrific explosion was then heard and in a moment the entire hospital section was in flames. On the arrival of the fire apparatus a general alarm was sent in, ealling out the entire department. The smoke began to pour out of every window in the main building and the screams and frantie cries of the children could be heard. The work of rescue began with a will. - Children and nurses were carried from the building, all in an uneonscious condition, some dead. Ambulances from the city, St. Mary's and Hahnemann hospitals were summoned and the vietims were removed to the several institutions. There were 109 children at the hospita' and a corps of about 30 nurses and attendants. Two of the women attendants are among the dead. The property loss will probably exceed $20,000. Twenty-one persons are known to have perished, 25 were injured. some doubtless fatally. Most of the innates knew nothing about the fire until aroused by Young and Clark, though one woman stated that she heard an explosion before she smelled smoke.

The scenes about the building while the fire was at its height were heart hardening in the extreme. Crazed women were running about trying to find out whether certain little ones had been taken from the building in safety, while others were looking for their friends. All who were reseued had nothing on but their night clothing.

About 30 children were carried into the home of Herman Bchn, a shoe merchant across the street on Hubbell Park, and as fast as the ambulanees arrived the children were removed. Every few minutes a vietim would be reported dead.' Miss Comerieux, one of the attendants, was rescued from a third story window by a fireman. When part way down the ladder the fireman slipped son, Bass, in Atlanta, who demand and fell to the ground. Both were terribly injured, though they will recover.

At St. Mary's hospital eight are dead, the identity of none being known.

There are five dead in the Homeopathic hospital, the identity of none being known.

Several died in houses near the asylum. There are 15 children and one woman dead at the morgue.

The total number of fatalities known is 27.

Lillie Stone, aged eight years, is fearfully burned about the legs and body and will die. Miss Brad, the nurse of the hospital ward of the asylum, will probably die. Kate Cottrell and Blanche Atheson, the latter colored, are believed to be in a dving condition. Both had fearful falls and sustained frightful injuries. But one inmate is dying at the hospital, he being a little boy who was tell his name.

John Carey, eight years old, is at the Hahnemann hospital. His lungs ed States." were filled with smoke and no hope is held out for his recovery.

Carnegie Company Will Build the Largest Pipe and Tube Mannface turing Plant in the World.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 9 .- In explanation of the extensive land purchases of the Carnegie Co. at Conneaut Harbor, O., President Charles M. Schwab Tuesday made clear the plans of the company with respect to these purchases. Mr. Schwab states that for over a year the Carnegie Co. has contemplated entering into lines of manufacture other than in which it has been engaged hitherto, and the first step in earrying out this purpose is to be taken at once by the estube manufacturing plant in the world at Conneaut Harbor, O., which is the Lake Erie terminal of the Carnegie Pittsburgh, Bessemer & Lake Erie railroad, 150 miles from Pittsburgh. The company has purchased 5,000 aeres of land immediately east of Conneaut Harbor docks, and a large part of this vast tract will be utilized as a site for the tube works. The works will stretch over a mile of the lake front and will be the most extensive and complete of its kind in every branch ever built. The investment, exclusive of ground, will reach about $12,000,000,000.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

An Effort to Have Them Removed From Peking to a Capital of One of the Powers.

Washington, Jan. 9 .- The negotiations which have been pending for some time relative to the removal from Peking some of the subjects of international negotiations, so that they could be taken up at Washington or at the eapital of one of the other powers, have now advanced to a stage where there is promise of a satisfactory understanding among the powers on this move. The plan originated through a suggestion of Minister Conger, eabled about a week ago, to the effect that there was little prospect of securing united action on the subject of indemnity and of new commercial treaties with China. Mr. Conger suggested that better progress in the negotiations was likely to result if these two phases could be removed from Peking and taken up at some point entirely removed from local influences.

AFTER TWO FIENDS.

One of the Most Dastardly Deeds in the History of Pleasants County, West Virginia.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 10 .- Offieers are seouring the county of Pleasants, which adjoins this, trying to eapture two fiends who attempted the most dastardly deed in the history of Pleasants county Sunday evening. William Higgins and Elisha Smith are their names, and they are eharged with malicious and felonious assault, with the intention of committing a criminal assault on the persons of Josie and Julia Johnson, two of the most respectable young ladies of that county. The young ladies were introduced to the men, who asked to accompany them home, which was granted, and they started. When a lonely spot was reached the girls were knocked down and the dastardly attempt made, but they succrecied even at the points of revolvers in driving the men away. Feeling in the vicinity is very high and if caught they will be given the harshest treatment known.

WHEN MARY THINKS.

When Mary does her thinking Tis twliight, and the sun Is tucked to bed 'neath curtains red, And stars peep, one by one, rom ar-off, pearly spaces. With glad lights on their faces, are smiling, and some winking.

\\ bile Mary does her thinking. The day, with song and laughter, With happy work and play. Glides swiftly by on wings that fly-The great, giad, golden day; And light as any bubble, With not a grief or trouble The hours to vex and vary, So light seems little Mary.

But when the sunset splendor Floods all the glowing west And sinks and fades to opal shades.
A twilight dream of rest, Then to a slower motion Moves Mary—some sweet potlon Has set her brown eyes blinking. And Mary does her thinking.

Far thoughts, mysterious, tender. Great thoughts, majestic, wise, These come and go with cbb and flow in little Mary's eyes. As close she sits by mother-By her and by no other-Sweet influences drinking The while she does her thinking.

If I could spend a twifight Beneath wee Mary's curls, And closely heed and clearly read The thoughts of little girls-The gladness and the beauty. The sweetness and the duty, The chime, and rhyme, and reason-Oh, what a happy season.

But only just my fingers Can creep beneath her hair— A mass of golden wealin untold— And sweetly nestle there The clinging ringlets under: And so I sit and wonder, While stars are smiling, winking. And Mary does her thinking Whipple Benham, in Youth's Com-

The product of her meditation was worthy of her ingenuity. She laid as de the newspapers, of which she had only read a few big headlines, and set down at a table where there was a pen, paper and ink, and began to write as follows:

"Whereas, I, Jeanue Goddard, wife of Major Rowland Goddard, of Lyndhurst-on-the-Hudson. New York, do hereby acknowledge that I owe my companion. Lucy Nolan, for past services, the sum of one thousand dollars, which debt I do seenre by a mortgage on all my personal effects, such as my jewelry, trunks and all their various eontents, such as wearing apparel, etc. In case of my death while we are abroad I hereby authorize her, the said Lucy Nolan, to retain the forementioned property till my husband, the said Major Goddard, has satisfied her claim in full. To this I herewith set my hand and scal.

"Jeanne Goddard." "What does all this mean?" questioned Mrs. Nolan, when she had read it twice, each time with contracted brows and a doubtful shake of the head.

"You must go and inquire the ad-Liverpool. Pay him his fee in advance, give him this paper and tell him that you want him to get my luggage turned over to you. You must explain that I have always been-that I always was a hard individual to get money out of, and that as I already owed you a thousand dollars you refused to go abroad with me without some sort of security. Tell him that you intend to take the things right back to America, believing that Major Goddard will settle your claims as soon as you do. Are you willing to do this?"

"Oh, I gon't mind at all," said Mrs. Nolan, smiling. "I have just begun to get my hand in and rather like the excitement. The English arc so polite. I think I can .tell a tale straight enough."

The two plotters did not meet till the following afternoon. About four o check Mrs. Notan entered, her face rallant with good news.

"I had very little trouble," she announced. "I seemed the services of the best barrister in Liverpool. He charged $50; but he said he would stand as my security in case of any legal complication. I tell you I felt good when I saw the trunks unloaded at my hotel."

Fisheries on Detroit River and Put-In-Bay to Provide Immense Stock in the Spring.

During the whitefish spawning seasonjust closed the fisheries on the Detroit river caught about 20,000 whitefish, which yielded over 200,000,000 eggs. these eggs have been placed in the hatchcries in Detroit and at Put-in-Bay isands, where, by the Case jar system, they will yield about 85 per cent in

In the nets with the whitefish a large variety of the fish of the great lakes has been eaught. Many of these have been penned in the river at Belle Isle, in the Detroit river, for the purpose of sending them in February to the aquarium exhibit of the first annual exposition of the International Forest, Fish and Game association, to be held in Chicago, February 9 to 24.

The following are the varieties which will be sent to the exhibit: German cod. lawyers, moone-eyes, perch,, walleyed pike, saugers, mullet, suekers or red sides, rock bass, blue pike, grass pike, sturgeon, whitefish, gar pike, muskalonge, sheepshead and dogfish. They will be kept in the pens at Belle Isle until February and then shipped in tanks to Chicago.

STARR TO STUDY INDIANS.

Chicago Anthropologist Has Left to Investigate Mexican Tribe.

Prof. Frederick Starr, of the University of Chicago, has left for a six months' trip among some of the wild and unknown tribes of Mexico. The Lacandones, one of the tribes he expects to visit, are one of the least known peoples in the western hemisphere. They lead wandering lives and use erude stone implements and are as timid as rabbits, leaving their homes at the approach of strangers. A village is to be studied where in 1869 all the whites and half-breeds were killed and old pagan religion reestablished. The people crucified a boy in order that they might have an Indian Christ. BOY WHO LIVES NEXT DOOR

The boy who lives next door Has freckies on his face; His ears are red and hang Away out into space. And when I hear a dog ki-yi And see it fiee in terror, I Can quickly guess the cause 'Tis merely that one more Poor little victim knows A boy resides next door!

He runs across the iawn I've nursed with jealous care, And, in the summer time, Knocks down the flowers there! It seems to give him pure delight To yeli around with all his might, And every week or so

A pebble finds its way For which I have to pay!

He has no teeth in front, His hands are cracked and brown, Twice he has nearly burned Our summer kitchen down: He calls to people: "Hey! Watch out!"

And when they jump he whoops about—
I used to think if God

Would take him from below Up to the sky I'd try
To bravely bear the blow! The little child whose love Is all to me, one day

Was stricken suddenly When I was far away-The boy who lives next door forgot To yell around, but ran and brought The doctor to the bed, And when I came, at last, Shrank from me with a look

Of pity as I passed! The boy who lives next door Brought in his tops and gun. And pocketfuls of trash To please our little one; He played beside my darling's bed. Turned cartwheels and stood on his head, And God was good to me— Let's wait awhile before

We utterly condemn

What's the matter? Landlord, fill two more pints, an' then I'll be off in a pig's whisper to circumvent Squire Tallyho!"

On the same day the squire's gamekeeper detected a countryman dressed in tattered frieze, without shoe or stocking, with a plump young hare under his arm and a dangerous-looking cudgel in his hand. He had evidently been poaching on the Tallyho estate. The moment he saw the gamekeeper he hastily threw the hare and cudgel aside and took to his heels.

What's the difference whether I'm engaged to her or not?" asked the customer, with considerable tartness.

"A great deal, sir. You intend this ring for a Christmas present, probably?"

"I probably do."

"Very well. We have diamond rings for $25 and diamond rings for $50, $75 and $100. If not actually engaged to the girl, take a $25 ring, and when she brings it in here to find out the cost we'll lie $50 worth for your benefit. If really engaged, take a higher price, and you can pawn it for two-thirds of its value after marriage. Now, then, make your selection."—Washington

> ----Where Physicians Failed.

When I. W. Kesler was a general news agent at 524 Front Street, Cincinnati, Ohio, he wrote: "Palmer's Lotion has cured a very distressing and unsightly eruption on my face of over two years' standing, after the best physicians I could find failed in affording me any relief. The first application removed much of the soreness and pain. and very soon a complete cure was effected."

Grade Doses by Rank, One Marshal Le Febvre fell ill of an ague, and his servant, an old soldier, caught the malady at the same time. The servant was quickly cured, but the fever clung to the marshal until it occurred to his energetic duchess that the doctor had blundered by giving the marshal the same doses as to a giving the marshal the same doses as to a private soldier. She rapidly counted upon her fingers the different rings of the military ladder. "Here, drink this; this is suited to your grade," she said, putting a tumbler to her husband's lips. And the tumbler to her husband's lips. And the duke, having swallowed a dozen doses at one gulp, was soon on his legs again. "You've a great deal to learn, my boy," was the lady's subsequent remark to the astonished doctor.—Chicago Chronicle.

the foolishness that goes on at a church wedding finally got even as follows, says the Atchison Globe man: "They were married in great style. All the elite of the town were invited, principally because it was thought that they would be more likely to bring elegant presents for the bride.

"Of course, the ceremony took place in the church, and the church was most beautifully decorated for the occasion. Potted plants were borrowed here and there, wherever they could be secured without making the owner mad enough to fight.

"The bride's young lady friends had the decorations in charge, and when they were decorations in charge, and when they were not making nosegays they were chewing the not making nosegays they were chewing the rag about the trouble and work, and wishing that the bride had sense enough to get up her own wedding. The ushers wore claw-hammer coats, parted their hair in the middle and stepped high when they walked down the aisle. The coats were hired from a costumer, and their white gloves came from an undertaker's, who kept them on hand for funeral occasions. "It was a ring ceremony. The ring was a monstrous gold band borrowed of the village jeweler. People called the bride lovely, but she was so homely that hollyhocks wouldn't grow in the dooryard where she Embarrassing Dilemma in Which "Fighting Joe" Lately Found Himself.

At Washington the other day it was raining hard, and the street cars were crowded with passengers more or less bedraggied. Among them was Gen. Joe Wheeler. Next Among them was Gen. Joe Wheeler. Next to him was a woman wearing a mackintosh, who rose to get off at Fourteenth and F streets. Gen. Wheeler noticed an umbrella leaning against the car seat.

He grabbed the umbrella, ran after the woman, caught her at the door and said: "Pardon me, madam, but you left your umbrella."

The woman looked puzzled, but took the umbrella. Gen. Wheeler resumed his seat. Then a woman on the other side of him gave a little scream and said: "Why, you nasty little man, you gave that woman my umbrella." Then she appealed to the conductor.

Gen. Wheeler apologized, but the woman said: "Now you just get right off the car and get it for me or I'll notify the police."

Meekly the veteran of three wars tumbled off into the rain and ran after the woman with the mackintosh. He made a hurried explanation, got the umbrella and rushed back to the waiting car.

As he handed it back to its owner he said: rushed back to the waiting car.

As he handed it back to its owner he said:
"I trust you wll pardon me, madam. I assure you it was all a mistake."

The woman glared at him. "I don't know about that." she sniffed. "I don't believe you are any better than you ought to be."

Treatment For Sprains.

The prevalence of sprains and strains owing to the indulgence in athletic exercises of all kinds moves an authority on the treatment of these painful accidents to say:

A little common sense treatment is often all that is needed when the strain is at ankle or wrist and without complications. It will swell very alarmingly at first and gradually develop a frightful looking bruise, but from the first it should have complete rest and a treatment of hot and cold douches. the hot being used at first, when the swelling is painful, and the cold later on, as a sort of tonic to the relaxed muscles. The hot must be very hot and the cold very cold, as the tepid water does harm rather than good.

For the first day of a strain, when all the wrenched cartilages and muscles are aching, great relief is found in a poultice of egg and salt. To make it, beat the white of an egg till light, but not stiff. Stir in gradually a cup and a half of salt, or more if needed, to make a thick, pastelike icing. Spread this on a cloth and bandage in place. Cover all with oil silk or a thick bath towel to protect the sheets, since the egg leaks out continually. After this has relieved the soreness begin with hot water fomentations and wear a light, firm bandage, except at night.
